SENIOR FARMERS MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAM FAQ'S

What is SFMNP?

The Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) provides vouchers to seniors age 60+ who have an annual income at or below 185% of the Federal Poverty Level. Checks are redeemable at authorized farmers markets and farm store to purchase fresh fruits, vegetables, edible herbs and some forms of honey. Voucher winners receive up to $80 worth of checks for year 2022.

Where can I use the vouchers?

Participating farmers markets and local farm stores will be listed on our website www.mowp.org/sfmnp

I can't get out of the house, what do I do?

Mail the affidavit to the address above. If you are unable to complete the application process online or by paper application, you may assign a proxy to do it for you. YOU need to sign the Affidavit of Eligibility and a Proxy. Both are available online at www.mowp.org/sfmnp

How long are the vouchers good for?

All vouchers are good through October 31st of this year, however, not all markets or farms are open through October.

What is an "Affidavit of Eligibility?"

This form is the application you fill out stating you meet the requirements of the program to enter the lottery. It is available online.

What is a "Proxy?"

A Proxy is used in your place when you are unable redeem your voucher if you win. An individual can fill this form out but you must sign the form.

What is a "Durable Power of Attorney" (DPOA)?

A DPOA is used when you are unable to sign any documents.

What if I'm not found eligible and I want to appeal the decision?

Go to www.dshs.wa.gov or www.mowp.org/sfmnp and follow the steps to complete a "denial of service". You must submit this within 60 days of denial.
